

1131-62-131

Gautam Raghavendra Eapi* (gautam.eapi@uta.edu) and Mostafa Ghandehari.

Comparison of ground level ozone levels among five cities. Preliminary report.

Ozone is one of the six criteria pollutants according to United States Environmental Protection Agency (EPA). Analysis of Variance (ANOVA) is used to decide if there is any statistical significance among five cities. Environmental applications are discussed. (Received July 10, 2017)