

1146-35-467

M. N. Nkashama* (nkashama@math.uab.edu), Mathematics Department, University of Alabama at Birmingham, Birmingham, AL 35294-1170, and N. Mavinga, Department of Mathematics and Statistics, Swarthmore College, Swarthmore, PA 19081-1390. Existence and multiplicity of solutions of nonlinear diffusion equations with a drift term and nonlinear boundary conditions. Preliminary report.

We shall present existence and multiplicity results for solutions to nonlinear second order elliptic partial differential equations with a drift term and nonlinear boundary conditions with weights; including the so-called Steklov type problems. Some behavior of the solution set will also be discussed. Since the problem may not have a variational structure, the proofs are based on degree theory and continuation methods with the use of some recent results in geometric analysis. (Received January 28, 2019)